"And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free" John 8:32

Message from Ronald R Ninala, President

Dear Friend,

It is not by chance, but God has led you to get hold of this manifesto of TRUTH based in the Bible. It is expected of you to read not once, but until you grasp the truth as presented in these few pages. Also, as you promised in the next 90 days you must read two of the four books you have taken. We are here to help you with the understanding of the Biblical truth and additional information will be given to you if you so desire.

As we all know, there are scores of religious faiths and hundreds of Christian denominations. But there is only one God and one way to salvation which is through Jesus Christ. It does not matter what we believe or preach, in the end, truth will prevail. What is the truth? Jesus is the Truth (John 14:6), his Word is the Truth (John 17:17) and His law is the Truth (Ps 119:142). In all our worship and preaching we should recognize that "God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth." John 4:24. In other words for God to accept our worship, our whole being must be led by the truth and the Holy Spirit.

Among many other false beliefs, there are two significant ones by which the whole world will be deceived. One is the state of the dead (immortality of the soul) and the other is Sunday sacredness. The Bible points out clearly that the man of sin/man of perdition is behind all the falsehoods of mixing truth with error (II Thessalonians 2:3, 4). Why would a dragon (Satan) through his seed (man of sin) attack the Sabbath commandment which has the seal of God and finally force everyone to receive the mark of the beast? (Revelation 12:17, Revelation 14:9-11). If you truly want to know the truth about it, please go through the rest of the letter. If you genuinely seek to uncover the truth regarding this matter, I encourage you to continue reading the rest of this letter.

As far as I know, the majority of your preaching is based on the Scripture, and you will agree with me I am sure, that truth is important, and in the end it will prevail. I strongly believe what we preach must center on these three fundamental truths of the Bible. The first one is that Jesus is the truth. "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." John 14:6. We all know that salvation comes only through Jesus Christ and none else. The second one is His word is Truth. "Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth." John 17:17. It means that the Bible is the only place where our doctrinal truth must come from. The third fundamental truth is Thy law is Truth. "Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and thy law is the truth." Psalms 119:142. God's law is the character of God and it cannot be changed by any mortal man. If God could change His law or do away with it, Jesus need not have come to the earth and died on the cross for the remission of our sins. You will recall, He wrote the law on tablets of stone with His own finger, signifying its permanency. What follows hereafter is based on these three basic truths. If you do not agree with any one of them, then there is a problem with your very belief system and understanding of the Bible.

There are several false teachings that are not based on Bible truth and are taught as doctrines. But I would like to specifically address only two false doctrines by which the whole world would be deceived at the end of time. The first one is the 'state of the dead,' (immortality of the soul), and the second one is 'Sunday sacredness.' By these two false doctrines many will lose their eternal life. The first false doctrine is the state of the dead (immortality of the soul). When man dies, he neither goes to heaven nor hell, but sleeps in the grave until Christ comes second time. The Bible speaks of two resurrections, the first one is to eternal life and the second one is to eternal damnation. Acts 24: 15. At the second coming of Jesus, those who are dead in Christ will be resurrected first, and those who are alive will be changed in a twinkling of an eye and caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air. I Thes. 4:16, 17. The second resurrection takes place at the end of 1,000 years when Christ comes back a third time with New Jerusalem. This resurrection is for eternal death and punishment. Revelation 20:2-4. The misconception of some Christians is that man has a soul and it lives on forever after death. Man is mortal. Genesis 2:7 says, "And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul." Soul here refers to man as a living being. Man needs both body and breath (spirit of God) to be a living person. When man loses his breath he is dead. Jesus equated death to sleep. Psalm 146:4 says, "His breath goeth forth, he turneth to earth, in that very day his thoughts perish." "For the living know that they shall die, but the dead know not anything." Eccl. 9:5. What is the state of man in the grave? "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, no device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave whither thou goest. Eccl. 9:10. Those who believe that the soul is still living will give way to spiritualism (a belief that spirits of the dead communicate with the living through a medium). In the last days, spiritualism will deceive the world with this fallacy. It is the evil angels who impersonate dead humans. Satan will transform into an angel of light and perform miracles to deceive the very elect. "For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ? And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light." II Corinthians 11:13, 14. "For there shall arise false christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect." Matthew 24:24. Dear elder, if you teach this doctrine correctly, you are in line with the Scripture. Please take note, most of the people will be deceived and follow false doctrines and teachings because of the miracles which Satan and his agents will perform in the sight of kings, rulers and mobs. "And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs came out of the mouth of the dragon, (Satan) and out of the mouth of the beast, (man of sin/Papacy) and out of the mouth of the false prophet (apostate protestants, those who teach false doctrines). For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of the great day of God Almighty." Revelation 16:13, 14. In the last days, the test of our faith is not in miracles, but whether you believe and obey the Word of God.

The second false doctrine by which the majority of the world will be deceived is Sunday sacredness. God gave mankind two holy institutions at creation, the Sabbath and marriage - between man and woman. Satan has already succeeded in disrupting God's original plan by the legalization of the LGBTQ agenda in the USA and many other nations of the world. The Sabbath observance was also instituted at creation. "And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made: and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made. And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made." Genesis 2:2, 3. Satan's plan was to drive people away from the truth by mixing truth with error as early as in the second century. Rome could not deter or stop the spread of Christianity through persecution during the first century. Therefore, Satan resorted to mixing truth with error and brought in pagans to Christianity without true conversion. Among many false doctrines such as infant baptism and baptism by sprinkling instead of immersion, establishing the priestly system (which was done away at the cross), praying to saints, statues, veneration of Mary, and the noteworthy one is changing the Sabbath from Saturday to Sunday. You will learn from history that the Roman Emperor Constantine enacted the first Sunday Law observance in 331 A. D (He did this in order to secure his kingdom because it was about to fall apart). Apostle Paul predicted of a power and what it will do before Jesus' second coming. II Thessalonians 2:3, 4 states, "Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day (the second coming of Jesus) shall not come, except there come a falling away first, (going away from pure truth to falsehood) and man of sin (Papacy) be revealed, the son of perdition; Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshiped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God." This passage implies that the second coming of Jesus is not taking place until the church has fallen from its pure truth once it had, and that man of sin is revealed. Who is this man of Sin or the son of perdition? Five hundred years ago, Martin Luther pointed out that the man of sin is Papacy. We now have more knowledge who this man of sin is by a thorough study of the Bible and understanding the fulfillment of Bible prophecy.

There are many references in Daniel and Revelation regarding this power (the man of sin), but the key texts are in Daniel 7:24, 25. "And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings and that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse (different) from the first, and he shall subdue three kings. And shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time, and times and the dividing of time." I will briefly explain this prophecy. When Rome fell, it was divided into ten barbarian tribes. Seven of them became kingdoms as we now know: Alemanni – German, Franks – France, Burgundians – Switzerland, Suevi – Portugal, Visigoths – Spain, Anglo-Saxon – England, and Lombards – Italy. Out of the ten, three were plucked out by their roots, Ostrogoths, Heruli and Vandals because they rebelled against the Roman Catholic Church. The Bible tells us this power will be diverse, from other kingdoms, meaning it is both religious and political. (All other powers listed in the prophecy were only political powers).

(A) "He shall speak great words against the most High". Revelation 13:7, 8 states, he shall "blasphemy against God". How? By taking the prerogative that belongs only to God, forgiveness of sins; saying that priests can intercede and forgive sins, basically eliminating God from the equation. The Priestly system was done away when Christ died on the cross. Jesus has become our High Priest in the heavenly sanctuary and now we can pray directly to Him. Hebrews 5:9, 10; 7:26

(B) He will "wear out the saints of the Most High". We know from history that around 50 million Christians were killed during the dark ages by this power. Because of religious persecution in Europe, the pilgrims came into the USA and it was declared in their constitution that church and state would be separate. (This will all soon change as predicted in Revelation 13: 11-18).

(C) The startling thing that this power does is he "think to change times and laws". Ten Commandments are written in two places in the Bible-- Exodus 20:2-17, Deuteronomy 5:4-21. In the Roman Catholic Catechism, you will find the variation. As God foretold, this power removed the second commandment, which deals with worshiping idols. Since they removed the second commandment, they split the tenth commandment into two to make up for the one removed—(1) thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife and (2) thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's property. Against covetousness there are two commandments but against idolatry there is no commandment.

(D) The most significant change this power did was to change Sabbath from Saturday to Sunday. The Bible specifically mentions that it will "think to change times and laws." In the fourth century (364 A.D) the Bishop of Rome changed the Sabbath from Saturday to Sunday at the council of Laodicea. (This is what has to do with change of times and laws). God is not caught off guard. He forewarned us this is what the dragon (Satan) would do through his seed, the beast (Papacy/man of sin) -- mixing truth with error. Satan's whole purpose is for man to be lost.

(E) The Bible also tells us how long this power would rule-- "and they shall be given unto his hand until a time, and times and the dividing of time." Time is one year, times is two years, and the dividing of time is half year, which adds up to 3 ½ years. According to the Jewish calendar, 360 days to a year, multiplying 3 ½ years by 360 gives us 1260 days. The same period is given to us in different places, Rev 13:5, 42 months, Revelation 12:6, 1260 days. In the Bible prophecy, one day is equal to 1 year (see Ezekiel 4:6, Numbers 14:34), so this power will rule for 1260 years. Emperor Justinian gave Rome to Papacy in 538 A.D and he moved his headquarters to Constantinople. That same year the last of the three powers was eradicated and Pope was in full power from 538 A.D. to 1798 A.D., as was predicted in the Bible prophecy for his rule of 1260 years. In the year 1798, Napoleon's general Berthea took the Bishop of Rome into captivity and he died in the prison, fulfilling the Bible prophecy, "wounded unto death." "And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast." Revelation 13:3. This wound was healed when Mussolini gave power back to Pope in 1929 at Lateran Treaty. Pope once again came to power and the whole world began to recognize him as a great religious and political power, not realizing that he is actually the anti-Christ. There are many other identifying marks recorded in the Bible of the Papacy, but the one that is appropriate to mention here is the number of his name--666 (Revelation 13:18) Pope's MITRE has the inscription: VICARIUS FILII DEI (in place of Christ). If you convert the inscription into Roman numerals, it adds up to exactly to 666. (V=5, I=1, C=100, A=0, R=0, I=1, U=5, S=0 (112) F=0, I=1, L=50, I=1, I=1, D=500, E=0, I=1, (554) Total is 666.

There is a lot more we can study about this power, but I must concise it for now. With the crucifixion of Jesus, as the Lamb of God, the Sanctuary system on earth was done away. But the beast power refused to accept it. Daniel 8:11 says, "Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. And an host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground: and it practiced, and prospered." The antichrist (Pope, man of sin) attacked the sanctuary in heaven. How? In an amazing way. He set up a priestly system here on earth and whoever would not follow him was killed. His wound is now healed and he would soon join forces with another political power (U.S.A.) as foretold in Revelation 13: 11 and would exercise the same power as before in the dark ages to persecute God's remnant (commanding keeping) people. (Revelation 12:17).

This is how the Man of Sin attacked the sanctuary service. But, why attack the sanctuary service? The Scripture says in Psalms 77:13, "Thy way, O God, is in the sanctuary." The way to God (salvation) is fully made known in the sanctuary service system. Every article in the sanctuary had a purpose. The Bible says it cast down the truth to the ground and it practiced and prospered. First of all, he attacked the burnt offering. Christ's sacrifice is once for all (Hebrews 7:27), but this power says, one time sacrifice is not enough. It is replaced with Eucharist which sacrifices Christ over and over again. The laver which represented true baptism by immersion, but it was replaced by infant baptism and sprinkling. The Table of shew bread which represented the word of God was taken away from common people. It was only for the clergy to read and not for laity. They even killed those who possessed the Bible during the dark ages. The altar of incense which represented prayer, a direct communication between God and man, was replaced by confessions to priests (man) and dead saints. The Seven branched candle sticks which taught to let your light shine through witnessing to the world was replaced by the slogan "convert or burn." Finally, we come to the last one the Ark of the Covenant of which was in the most holy place of the Hebrew temple (and there is Temple in Heaven, Revelation 11:19) and contained the two tablets of stone with the Ten Commandments written on by the finger of God, denoting that it was everlasting, but was attacked by this counterfeit power. The man of sin (Pope) claims that he is God on earth and he changed the Sabbath from the seventh day to the first day of the week, i.e. from Saturday to Sunday. "The Catholic Church ....by virtue of her divine mission, changed the day from Saturday to Sunday" The Catholic Mirror, the official organ of Cardinal Gibbons, Sept. 23, 1893. For the question asked have you any other way of proving that the Church has power to institute festivals of precept? Answer: "Had she not such power, she could not have done that in which all modern religionists agree with her,--she could not have substituted the observance of Sunday the first day of the week, for the observance of Saturday the seventh day, a change for which there is no Scriptural authority." Stephen Keenan, A Doctrinal Catechism (3rd ed.) p. 174

With this background, we can now understand step by step how the truth about the sanctuary and the Ten Commandments was restored. In 1300 John Wycliffe translated the Bible and restored the Table of Shew bread. Common people could read the Bible for themselves. In 1400 Martin Luther restored the altar of sacrifice by teaching that Christ's one time sacrifice is good enough for salvation. We are saved by faith through grace. In 1500 John Calvin, a French theologian and co-founder of the Presbyterian Church, restored the altar of incense. He taught that people can pray directly to God and confess their sins. In 1600 John Smyth, founder of the Baptist church, restored true immersion baptism represented by the Laver. In 1700 John Wesley, a Methodist, restored the meaning of the seven branches of candlestick by setting up true missionary work all around the world. He followed the true spirit of witnessing.

What else needed to be restored? God shed special light on the most holy place through William Miller in the 1800's. William Miller began to preach that Jesus would come on October 22, 1844. Of course, He did not come, and this was known as the great disappointment in Christian history. This was as the result of misinterpretation of Daniel 8:14 "And he said unto me, unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed." The beginning date of this prophecy was 457 B.C. when the Persian King Artaxerxes commanded the Jews to rebuild Jerusalem and ended in 1844, exactly 2,300 years later. See Daniel 9:25. What really happened in 1844 was that Jesus moved from the Holy Place into the Most Holy Place in the heavenly sanctuary as was the custom on the Day of Atonement, based on the yearly cleansing of earthy sanctuary. On October 22, 1844, Jesus moved from Holy Place into the Most Holy Place in the heavenly sanctuary to complete His ministerial, priestly work on our behalf. (Hebrews 8). It was the beginning of the investigative judgment. During the investigative judgment, every person from Adam who has taken upon the name of Jesus is judged at the judgment seat of God. See I Peter 4:17. The most important article of the most holy place is the Ark of the Covenant which contains the Ten Commandments that Satan tried to destroy, specifically the second and the fourth commandment, the Seventh Day Sabbath. The post Millerite Christians were to restore the law to their rightful place. This little group believing the Bible to be their only standard of faith, started spreading the wonderful truths, notably on the state of the dead, the ten commandments, seventh day Sabbath, baptism by immersion, the investigative judgment, righteousness by faith, the three angels' message of Revelation 14, to prepare a people for the second coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. This is the complete gospel preached by the Advent movement called the present truth, the final message to the whole world.

The final message to be preached is recorded in Revelation 14:6-12, known as the three angels message. "And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred and tongue, and people. Saying with a loud voice Fear God, and give glory to him for the hour of his judgment is come; and worship him that made heaven, and earth and the sea, and the fountains of waters. And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication. And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, if any man worship the beast and his image and receive his mark in his forehead, or his hand, The same will drink of the wine of the wrath of God which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb. And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up forever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name. Here is the patience of the saints; here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus." The first angel having the everlasting gospel calls everyone to worship the God of creation because the hour of his judgment has come (when? in 1844 the investigative judgment has begun). The second angel calls everyone to come out of Babylon meaning confusion in the world and be separate. There are so many preachers or denominations which do not preach or teach the whole truth. This angel (messenger) is calling every sincere believer to follow all the restored truth as per Scriptures and join the remnant people. (Revelation 12:17). The third angel says, "If any man worship the beast (Papacy, man of sin) and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or his hand, the same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into his cup of his indignation". This is a solemn warning. The people who pay homage to papacy or follow its false teachings will face the wrath of God and will miss heaven. While the seal of God is placed only on the forehead of God's true believers (Revelation 7:1-4) the mark of the beast can be placed on the forehead (knowingly) or hand (not understanding fully, but follow because it is the mark law of the land) of the rebels. Verse 12 gives us the answer of those who will be saved are those who will keep the commandments (all) of God and have the faith of Jesus. Having faith of Jesus means that this special group of people is willing to sacrifice anything and everything, including their lives, as Jesus did by giving up His life on the cross for our sake.

Satan attacked the Sabbath (4th) commandment where the seal of God is placed. In six days (1) the LORD (name) (2) made (office, Creator) (3) heaven and earth (dominion). The Sabbath commandment alone of all the ten contains the seal of God which has his name, office, and dominion. (Exodus 20:8-11). (Take for example the seal of Maryland makes up this: Wes Moore-name, Governor-title, The State of Maryland-jurisdiction). "And hallow my Sabbaths; and they shall be a sign (seal) between me and you, that ye may know that I am the Lord your God." Ezekiel 20:20. No matter whatever your justification, kindly note that Sunday is in opposition to God's Sabbath and its observance is the mark of the beast when fully implemented by legislature. If anyone of us makes it to heaven, do not expect to worship God on Sunday, for you will find the seventh day will continue to be the Lord's Day in heaven. "For as the new heaven and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the Lord, so shall your seed and your name remain. And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the Lord." Isaiah 66:22, 23. Therefore, it is imperative and prudent that we might as well get used to worshipping God on the right day here and now on earth. (Sunday is a substitution to God's Holy Sabbath day of Saturday).

It is no speculation, for the Bible tells us clearly who will not receive the mark of the beast. "Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus." Revelation 14:12. The remnant people will keep the whole law including the Sabbath commandment and have the faith of Jesus. Remember, the great controversy between Christ and Satan has begun in heaven. Satan is interested in destroying God's people and draw them away from the truth. "And the dragon (Satan) was wroth with the woman (the true, pure church), and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ." Revelation

12:17. Once again we note that Satan is angry with those who keep the whole law (including the Sabbath) and it adds they “have the testimony of Jesus Christ.” The testimony of Jesus Christ is the spirit of prophecy (Revelation 19:10). This is the identity of the remnant people—they keep the Sabbath and have a prophetic gift (messages) for the last days. (I have enclosed a small booklet written by Ellen White, “Steps to Christ”. God gave Ellen White around 2,000 visions and dreams in her lifetime and she has written books that go as tall as the height of a man. She had only third grade formal education. What all she wrote is in line with the Scripture, for God will not contradict with Himself. Also enclosed is another book by her, “The Great Controversy”, which deals with from the reformation time to the end of time. More information will be given to those who request.)

There is one other important item to cover before I close. There is another power that will join forces with the Papacy at the end of time. Papacy, the religious power will need a political power to enforce its dogmas. “And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.” Revelation 13:11. This lamb like beast came up from the earth, a sparsely populated place and will speak as a dragon. This refers to no other power than the United States of America. If you read the rest of the chapter it will give you more clues what it will do. “And (U.S) had the power to give life unto the image of the beast (this takes place when religious power’s dogmas are enforced by civil government authority), that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the best, should be killed. And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads.” Revelation 13:15, 16. (For 200 years the United States had no alliance with the papacy because of what the papacy did in the dark ages. However, the long duration of time made people forget the persecuting power of the papacy. In 1984 President Ronald Regan sent the first ambassador to the Vatican. Papacy by joining hands with the USA (support from apostate protestants) will bring about forced Sunday Law worship and enforce it globally. See Revelation 16:13, 15). In this great conflict only those obedient to God’s commandments, who have the Father’s Name written in their foreheads (Revelation 14:1) and who are sealed (Revelation 13:8) will come out victorious.

Dear Elder, we all know that truth will prevail at the end. God expects us to know the truth and preach the truth. It is a sin when you know the truth and do not do it. Here are some texts and they are self-explanatory. I trust they give you added assurance and guidance. “But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men”. Matthew 15:9. “But he answered and said unto them, why do ye also transgress the commandant of God by your tradition?” Matthew 15:3. “For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.” Matthew 24:24. “Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils: and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will profess unto them, I never knew you depart from me ye that work iniquity.” Matthew 7:22, 23. “Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.” Matthew 5:19. “For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.” James 2:10. Jesus said, “If ye love me, keep my commandments.” (all the ten commandments). John 14:15. Those who truly love Jesus will obey Him.

Just as we know that there are two sides to a coin, there are two sides to any issue--good and bad, truth and falsehood, righteousness and evil, and the way to heaven or hell. We as humans take one side or the other and find reasons, arguments, justifications or excuses to support what we like and stand for. But the truth of the matter according to God’s Word is, “No one can serve two masters. Either you will hate the one and love the other, or you will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.” Matthew 6:24 NIV. Therefore, it is extremely important that we know the truth and follow it, as God intended in the Scripture; otherwise face the reckoning time when we would receive eternal life (given at the second coming of Jesus) or eternal death (happens at the end of the third coming of Jesus).

One question that still lingers in every man’s mind is does it pay to serve the Lord. Both Cain and Abel wanted to worship God. Cain brought vegetables and fruits as his offering, whereas Abel brought a lamb. Both wanted to worship God, but Cain substituted something else to what God asked them to do. God accepted Abel’s offering and not Cain’s. Abel got killed for doing the right thing. Are we substituting something else to any specific requirements of God? Although Abel had a short life on this earth, he will awake to Christ’s call, when He comes in the clouds. It is better to obey than sacrifice. Stephen preached sincerely to convert his countrymen, but he got stoned for doing the right thing. (Acts 7). Pilate came to the crossroads and had to answer, “What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ?” (Matthew 27:22). This is the very question every person on earth will have to answer one time or another. Pilate knew that Jesus was innocent, but he gave up Jesus to be crucified. Why? To protect his own job and position (John 19:12). Adam and Eve ate the forbidden fruit which stood for something. It stood for the temptation to push God aside and declare, “I can be the measure of my own life. I can be God to myself. I have authority over the Word of God.” Could any of us fall into that same trap? To be saved we must do the right thing in spite of what consequences we may face on this earth, even to the point of losing our jobs or positions, or even death. I am also enclosing a reference book entitled “Bible Readings”. You will get the right answer from the Bible on any given subject by question and answer. I trust this will give you what you need to know on any given topic or subject of the Bible without the coaxing of any individual, preacher or power. For those who are interested, I recommend a set of five books which will give you additional light on the subject. (List attached separately). You may be wondering why I took this time to write to you and send these books; it is because truth is important and it will prevail in the end. This is a solemn warning of the Scripture recorded in II Thessalonians 2:12, “That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.” This is what matters to every professed Christian: if you missed heaven, you missed everything in life. It is my prayer that this manifesto gives you the truth God intended for you to know and prompts you to seek additional light and tell others about your newfound light. If you need any additional information, please do not hesitate to call or write to me. We are here to support and encourage each other and seek additional enlightenment from the Word of God. May God bless you, your family and your ministry.

Sincerely your brother in Christ,

“For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.” II

Addendum

Sometimes people misapply what is written in the Bible, either ignorantly or to justify and make it to mean what they want it to be. We just take certain phrases and ignore all other texts so clearly say what God meant it to be on a particular subject. The Bible is very clear in what it states when you take it as a whole. Take for example the text below.

Colossians 2:14-17 “Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross: And having spoiled principalities and powers he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it. Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of a holydays, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: Which is a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.”

A certain law of ordinances was nailed to the cross. This was the ceremonial law of types and shadows that pointed forward the death of Jesus and that had no further meaning beyond the cross. This is why Paul said it was contrary to the Christian. The rent veil in the temple at the death of Christ (Matthew 27:51) indicated the end of that ordinance of animal sacrifices, and Ephesians 2:15 says that Jesus “abolished...the law of commandments contained in ordinances.”

This is why Paul wrote in Colossians 2:16, 17 that we are no longer judged by the meat offerings, drink offerings, and sabbath days “which are a shadow of things to come.” Take note that these are yearly and not the weekly Sabbath of the moral law. These shadowy sabbaths are described in Leviticus 23:24-37. They fell on certain set days of the month—a different day of the week each year, yet they were called sabbaths. But please observe in verses 37 and 38 how they were distinguished from the weekly Sabbath: “These are the feasts of the Lord, which ye shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to offer an offering made by fire unto the Lord, a burnt offering, and meat offering, a sacrifice and drink offerings, everything upon his day, beside the sabbaths of the Lord.”

Now the mystery of Colossians 2:16 is completely cleared up. The law of the yearly sabbaths, with all its meat and drink offerings, was nailed to the cross, but the great Ten Commandment law with its weekly Sabbath was not affected by that “blotting out” of ordinances.
